

Every Christ-follower has been rescued from death and given life. We are now a part of Jesus' rescue mission.

"Evangelism is not salesmanship. It is not urging people, pressing them, coercing them, overwhelming them, or subduing them. Evangelism is telling a message. Evangelism is reporting good news." Richard Halverson

Jesus gives us a mandate to go and tell the story of the good news but often we don't. We ignore or neglect the great commission. Why?

- _____—We allow fear to paralyze us because we are afraid that we will not know what to say or we will not have answers to the questions.
- _____—We are afraid we will be rejected and are more concerned about ourselves than the eternity of others.
- _____—We keep putting off sharing the good news because we are waiting on the right time.
- _____—We have no heart or concern for the lost.
- _____—We have convinced ourselves that someone else will share the Good

News and it is not our responsibility.

John 1:35–42

Simple Evangelism Strategy

1. Start with someone you _____. John 1:41
  - The most natural place for evangelism is with people you already know because you have established relationship and credibility with them.
2. Tell them _____ you know. John 1:41
  - Share with them your own story.
3. _____ them with you. John 1:42
  - Invite them to opportunities where they can encounter Jesus.
4. Give opportunity for Jesus to change the _____ of their lives. John 1:42
  - You cannot save anyone, but what you can do is bring them to Jesus through your words and your actions.

What we make difficult in life we seem to avoid, so don't make reaching the lost difficult. It is as simple as telling the story of what Jesus has done for you.
