

sermonnotes

May Your Will Be Done – Part 2

As Kingdom Citizens, we are stewards or managers of the King's goods. In our temporary time on earth, we have the privilege of stewarding God's goods for His glory and our benefit.

In God's plan, we are to take His resources and use them in a way that establishes and extends His Kingdom in our world.

Matthew 25:14–30

1. We have been _____ with God's gifts of time, talent, and treasure. Matthew 25:14
 - Time—How we spend our days shapes the investment of our lives.
 - Talents—We have been given abilities to serve God and others. 1 Peter 4:10
 - Treasure—We have been given resources to live generously, honoring God, and blessing others. 2 Corinthians 9:11
2. We will have to give an _____ to God for how we have stewarded His goods. Matthew 5:19
 - A steward is responsible to manage affairs of the King. When the King returns, the steward will have to give an account of that responsibility.
3. As stewards, we will be _____ according to our faithfulness in managing God's assets. Matthew 25:21, 23

- God will not judge and/or reward you based on what you didn't have, but on what you did with what you had.

4. We should leverage God's goods for _____ and _____ His Kingdom on earth.

Matthew 25:21

- What will matter at the end of our lives is not what we have gained or gathered, but what we have invested in as we have been busy building God's Kingdom.

5. Management of our temporary time on earth is shaping what we will _____ in eternity.

Matthew 19:28

- In God's future kingdom, we will not be floating around on clouds. The kingdom will be a government, which will operate in perfect righteousness. There will be people in positions of authority who were faithful servants of Jesus Christ on earth

"Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor to the Lord is not in vain." 1 Corinthians 15:58

Answers: entrusted; account; rewarded; establishing, extending; experience

Want to listen again or share with a friend?
Sermon podcasts are available at gracecovenant.org or on our grace app.